Lee and Jackson are running the campaign for the Democrats.

The weather has been in mourning ever since the death of Old Probs.

The Democratic speakers are retreating from Maine like the French troops from Waterloo.

The more Hancock and Hampton open their mouths, the better it is for the Republican cause.

The Masonic fraternity will probably dedicate the raising of Cleopatra's Needle in Central Park, New York.

When General Grant undertakes to say a word on politics in his speeches he makes every sentence weigh a ton.

The corn crop and the Republican vote in Illinois will be the largest this year ever known in that State.

Our dispatches from Madison predict that the coming State Fair will be the most successful one ever held in Wisconsin.

There is hardly any one who dislikes Hancock to the extent to feel happy over the fact that Ben. Butler will support him.

The Democrats will soon have an illustration of the force with which Maine will sit down on the Democracy and Garcelonism.

The principles of Lee and Jackson, for which they fought four years, are the only ones that give the Democrats the hope of spoils.

It is predicted by some Republicans in Milwaukee that Mr. Sanger, the Republican candidate for Congress in that district, will be elected by 2,000 majority.

The abandoning of Maine by the Democrats is not the change the party wanted. They will have a good many such changes before the campaign is over with.

In October, Indiana will give fair notice to William H. English, that it will not cast its November vote for any man who has grown enormously rich upon the ruins of struggling poverty.

It is not likely that the Republican National Committee can induce Wade Hampton to take the stump in the North. His Stanton kind of speeches would be a big help to the Republican party.

A prominent Republican in Milwaukee has received a letter from Senator Conkling in which he says that he will make one speech in Wisconsin during the campaign, either at Milwaukee or Madison.

They have had very interesting times in France so far during the year. Since January 1st, there have been one hundred and forty duels. But by previous arrangements or understanding very few were hurt.

The contest this year is one purely on National issues, and the old, earnest Republican feeling will be thoroughly aroused in every Northern State by the attempt of the South to make use of a Union soldier as a catapult to get possession of the government.

There is a curious condition of affairs among the Democratic candidates for Congress in Pennsylvania. It shows how devoid of all settled and definite principles is the Democratic party. The Democratic platform declares for free trade, but the Pennsylvania candidates for Congress publicly state that they will stand by the Republican principle of Protection if they are elected. This is a pretty good way to make the promise of the National Democratic platform a lie.

A Republican campaign club in Cleveland held a meeting one day last week, and on the invitations issued appeared the following: "Died—Recently of chronic profanity on the brain and protracted decay of the patriotic cardiac tissues, General W. S. Hancock, United States Army. (Paraphrasing Superbus.) Funeral will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 2, 1880. Preliminary arrangements for the funeral will be made at the Ocean-Street Wigwam, (Fifteenth Ward) on this Friday night, Aug. 27, at which time pall-bearers and torch-bearers will be selected. Requested in poems—if he can."

Inasmuch as it is acknowledged on all hands that the present contest is between the North and the South, the Albany Evening Journal puts this pointed proposition, to illustrate whether or not the South can be trusted to dominate in this government: "The Southern States owed $340,000,000 in 1872. Of this amount they have practically repudiated over $250,000,000, so they now pay from 1 to 4 per cent. on only $90,000,000. These repudiating States propose to take charge of the national Government. Having acquired the habit of repudiation, with President and Congress under their thumb, what is to hinder them from applying the same rascally principle to the national debt?"

There is no man in the United States who has made more woe of homesteads and turned more people out of doors in order to get their property, than has William H. English, the Democratic "Poor man's friend," and candidate for Vice President. Upon the ruins of homes and the misfortunes of the poor, he has built up enormous wealth. During the past six or seven years, he has had three hundred and eighty cases of foreclosures, and in all but twelve of these, he was the highest bidder and took the farms and the homes. He has in this way wrung from the poor $195,501.81, beside the $129,293.19 paid to the sheriff, and the appraised valuation of the property he has obtained by this appalling extortion, when the assessment was lower than it had been for fifteen years, was $344,800.00. Because he is thus rich, he was nominated for the Vice Presidency by the Democrats, but the people of Indiana will never endorse his wholesale legal grabbing.

BODIES CONCEALED.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—The bodies of four infants were found, to-day, concealed in undertaker Elton's stables. He will be arrested on his return from the city, he now being absent.

THE JESUITS.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
PARIS, Aug. 31.—The police to-day resumed the work of expelling the Jesuit Fathers from their schools. A large crowd assembled but no resistance or demonstration was made.

HIS OLD LOVE.

The Hon. I. C. Sloan, of Madison, Returns to the Republican Party.
MADISON, Wis., Aug. 30.—The Hon. I. C. Sloan, of the firm of Sloan, Stevens & Morris, of this city, who was the Republican member of Congress from the old Fourth District for two terms, and who, when Greeley ran for President, supported him, and who has since that time acted with the Democratic party, being Assistant Attorney-General under his brother, A. Scott Sloan, during the Taylor administration, was elected by the Republicans Saturday night as a delegate to the Congressional Convention for the Second District. Mr. Sloan not only avows his intention of voting for Garfield and the Republican ticket, but he stands ready to aid the Republican party by his oratorical powers, and will make Garfield speeches during the campaign. This announcement was like a bombshell in the ranks of the Democracy. Mr. Sloan is a very prominent lawyer, a gift of gold coins, and a brilliant gentleman. He will aid greatly to the Republican cause in this State.

MAINE.

The Good Work Goes Bravely on. A Grand Victory Promised in September.

Augusta, Aug. 30.—The Kennebec Journal to-day, in reviewing the campaign, says: "The race is not doubtful, but we must not be content with simply electing our ticket. We must send the majority high among the thousands, swelling it by every vote that can be got by the greatest activity and good management that can be brought to its support. The bugle-note of victory this year must be one that will electrify the whole Union. The last week has been one of telling work. The State is ablaze with enthusiasm for the Republican ticket. In the character of the speakers, the numbers of the meetings held, and the extensive crowds which have attended them, the canvass of the past week stands unrivaled. The State has been so carefully mapped and spotted with speakers that all important points have been reached.

The results have been glorious. Republicanism has been aroused to intense activity all over the State. Those who had wandered away from the Republican fold are returning, and many who have voted against us in years past will cast their votes to condemn the crime of Garcelon and his Commod and against a Solid South, coming men who are about to cast their first vote will generally cast it on the side of a free ballot and an honest count. Few of them will stain their hands at their entrance into political life by voting for Plaisant, and to endorse the counting out villains. From all parts of the State come the most cheering reports. The interest of temperance, engineering and carried on by the Democratic capital, and for Democratic ends, has resulted in sinking its movers in disgrace, and stirring up a more earnest and profound feeling among honest temperance men for the support of the Republican cause. The announcement of Mr. Covey, Fusion ex-Secretary of State, is having a powerful effect upon the Republican Greenbackers. His letter rings like a trumpet over the State, calling upon the Greenbackers to beware of the Democracy, and rally to the Republican standard. The quiet but sure work among the voters is producing grand results. There is no agency more effective than individual effort right down among the voters at their homes, and at the school-district meetings. The present week will be one of unparalleled effort in the State. As the voters begin to feel that the election will sound the key-note of the National struggle, they become thoroughly interested. As goes Maine on the 14th of September, so goes the Nation in November."

SECRETARY SHERMAN.

The Able Secretary Makes a Campaign Speech in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30.—The Hon. John Sherman addressed an immense audience at Pike's Opera house here to-night, on the issues of the campaign. Major A. T. Goshorn presided. The great building was filled early, and thousands went away unable to gain admission. The overflow formed a large audience, which gathered in front of the postoffice building and was addressed by Ben Butterworth.

The principal event of the evening was a question by a noisy fellow in the crowd who wanted to know of Secretary Sherman what he had to say about having Arthur removed. To this the Secretary replied:

"We believed that the duties of that office were not being performed in the best manner by Mr. Arthur, and he was removed, but I have never by a single word spoken against or impugned the honor or integrity of that gentleman, and now that he is a candidate of the Republican party I would a thousand times rather vote for him than for English. This was a signal for the wildest applause.

Pretty soon somebody asked what kind of a man Garfield is, to which Sherman replied by a brilliant eulogy upon Garfield's life and career from boyhood on, comparing him with Hancock, whose only claim to stardom was a letter which he ought not to have written.

TANNER OUTDORE.

A Man in Grand Rapids, Mich., Fast for Sixty-Three Days.

GRAND RAPIDS, Aug. 30.—One Mark Perow, living just north of this city, some two months ago became possessed of the idea that he had a cancer in his stomach and could not eat. He refused all food, and could not be persuaded to take any sustenance except some sweetened water occasionally, and once one teaspoonful of ice-cream. He thus lived sixty-three days, and died last Saturday night. An autopsy made to-day found that his stomach, bowels, liver, lungs, heart, etc., were all perfectly sound and healthy, and that his whole trouble was in his brain. His abstinence from food is perfectly established, also the length of time he fasted. He was formerly a carpenter in the employ of the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee Railroad.

GOLD AND SILVER.

Work for the Mint the Estimated Amount of Foreign Shipment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The gold that is being sent to the mint from New York will probably not be coined for some time to any great extent, owing to the fact that there is so little demand for it, but for the present most of it will be simply stored. Eventually all this foreign coin now arriving will be melted and recoinced into eagles and half eagles. Now the most that is being done at Philadelphia is to make standard dollars. The amount of gold coming monthly is greater than silver, but the number of pieces is very much less. The Treasury Department ordered $200,000 to be placed to the credit of the Superintendent in the assay office in New York, with which to pay for foreign gold. It is estimated that the Treasury that $1,000,000 worth of foreign coin will reach this country per week until November 1.

THE STATE FAIR.

MADISON, Aug. 30.—General and Mrs. Grant will certainly attend the State Fair to be held here next week. They will be the guests of Colonel W. F. Voss, the eloquent Democratic orator, whose electrical speech at the Palmer House banquet last November in eulogy of General Grant, was the admiration of all who heard it.

The preparations for the Fair are now nearly completed, and it looks fair to be one of the most successful ever held in Wisconsin.

PLACES FILLED.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 30.—The striking mechanics of the St. Paul Railway Company were quite confident this afternoon that their demands would be complied with. An interview with the railway management revealed the fact, however, that the Company are entirely independent, having drawn a sufficient number of men from their shops elsewhere to carry on the pressing work. Two hundred and forty are employed. A few of the strikers went back to the shops to-day and found their places filled. The railway managers will not yield.

LONE ROCK SUICIDE.

LONE ROCK, Aug. 30.—This community was horrified to hear of the suicide of Mrs. Frank Goodrich this afternoon. Gashes upon each side of the neck show that the act was undertaken with determination. She left a note saying she was afflicted with trouble, but attached no blame to any one.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

A Flattering Compliment—W. F. Storey—The Railway Business—Butter and Cheese—Miscellaneous.

Special Correspondence to the Gazette.
Chicago, Aug. 30.—The Gazette, in its new dress, general appearance and able management, is calling out many flattering testimonials from its readers in this city. A prominent editor of a religious journal, remarked to me on last Friday, that it was a credit to any city, and its proprietors and editors might justly feel proud of the influence it exerted for good wherever known and read. He remarked likewise on its sound and reliable editorials as well as its general news matter. A prominent business man, who reads it daily, said to me that it was "a paper of true devotion to righteous principles."

Part of the skeleton of a huge mastodon decorates "Our Carter's" office at present. It was discovered by some workmen engaged in digging a sewer near Wacker Park in this city, eighteen feet below the surface. The remainder is being eagerly sought for by scientific men.

Wilbur F. Storey, the venerable editor and proprietor of the Times, is at present very weak and feeble. He relies on the strong arm of his young wife and his staff for support. The reasons alleged for his prostration, are, first, the immense mental strain under which he constantly labors, endeavoring to keep his paper in a paying condition. Second, his great fear of the near approach of the kind of fever which he never gives liberally to the church, speaks well of ministers—is more consistent than formally, and very mild in his manners, behavior, and general conversation.

Chicago will ere long be the largest city on the continent, as she is now the greatest railroad center in the world. In 1875, the amount of tonnage carried on the various roads amounted to 68,143,592. The C. & N. W. R. R. stands first on the list, in regard to increase of business and miles of new track laid in ten years. At present this line has 430 locomotives and 13,258 cars. In the year just past 5,570,710 tons of freight were handled and 3,580,000 passenger trains were made, making an increase in ten years of 3,000,000 tons of freight and 1,700,000 passengers—earnings for the past year were $17,319,280.

The Exposition will open this fall on September 8th, and close October 23rd. The managers are using their utmost endeavors to make it a most attractive and successful, the present season.

Last week in Farwell hall, Mr. Rowguy and half a dozen others, gave what they professed to be a grand exposure of Masonry in the third degree—or Master Mason. It was a very comical and extremely farcical affair. The small audience were kept in a continual roar of laughter. It was a ridiculous frame, perpetrated on an intelligent public by either perjurers or falsifiers. Their theatrical antics were looked upon as a gross violation of decency and morality, and themselves considered, from the point of view of the audience, as money makers and frauds under a disguise of Christianity. The churches of Chicago do not recognize any such insane delusions, and denounce the participants in unmeasured terms as unworthy of the slightest recognition.

The demand from England for fine crepe (butter) is rapidly increasing, and export from this city. Within the past seven weeks, nearly $14,000 worth have been shipped to one firm in Liverpool, on a through bill of lading.

The foreign trade in American cheese, has reached a point where cheeses from skin milk, to the richest cream, are being constantly shipped direct to Europe, and like our trade in preserved meats, are having a rapid sale and permanent market.

One of great interests at present are botanical depots. One firm alone deals in 1200 varieties of seeds, herbs, roots, barks, seeds, flowers, &c. It is gathered all over the United States, and the shipments of this one firm for June and July, amounted to nearly 50,000 pounds.

A Chicago gentleman, who used to be a street car conductor in this city, but now is a night conductor on one of our western railways, informed me that he had charge of a train from the far west of 13 sleeping cars, full of Sir Knights to the late great confederate. A vote was taken on the Presidential question, and resulted in 5 to 1 in favor of Garfield.

Fred Holden still languishes in jail, with no hope of an immediate release. He has been confined nearly nine months and the effect of this is apparent on his countenance. This case has been thrice called, and as often postponed, at the instigation of the prosecution. The Criminal Court will not convene until next month. At present our jail is overcrowded with criminals of all nationalities.

L. MORTAR.

A little learning is a dangerous thing, particularly when it is in the hands of a man who is a well tried and established remedy like Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, endorsed by everybody who has tried it in cases of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sprains, Bruises, Cuts, Burns and all the ills that an American Sovereign is subject to.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 30.—The striking mechanics of the St. Paul Railway Company were quite confident this afternoon that their demands would be complied with. Coughs.
"Brown's Bronchial Troches" are used with advantage to alleviate Coughs, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and Bronchitis Affections. For thirty years these Troches have been in use with annually increasing favor. They are not new and untried, but, having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-earned rank among the few staple remedies of the age.

The Troche.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" act directly on the organs of the voice. They have an extraordinary effect in all disorders of the Throat and Larynx, restoring a healthy tone when relaxed, either from cold or over-exertion of the voice, and produce a clear and distinct enunciation. Speakers and Singers find the Troches useful.

A Cough, Cold, Croup or Sore Throat requires immediate attention, its neglect often times results in some incurable Lung Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" will almost invariably give relief. Imitations are offered for sale, many of which are injurious. The genuine "Brown's Bronchial Troches" are sold only in boxes.

It seems passing strange that there are still folk in the world who can be and will be so careless in the use of a gun, as some of those who indulge in shooting in the vicinity of Burr Robbins' farm. There has been of late not only much annoyance, but there have been some very narrow escapes from injury, if not death. Last Sunday as Mr. Robbins was sitting on the porch of Mr. Robbins house some one fired a gun, and the shot struck the house about eight feet from him. A few days before, a lady received two or three shot in the arm, inflicting fortunately only slight injury. These sportsmen hold come right upon the premises and shoot Burr Robbins' own robins. It is trusted that with this public notice for all to quit the business, there will be no further trouble or danger, but if there is there will be a lively firing of fur. Of course no one has a right to fire off a gun anywhere within the city limits, and when it comes to endangering the safety and life of children, as well as adults there is an aggravation of the offense which warrants speedy and heavy penalties. Stop it.

BRIEFLETS.
—Trachist to-night.
—August reigns no more.
—The fire alarm bells must be getting rusty.

—St. Patrick's church folk will have their dance this evening in Young America hall.

—Oysters / said to be bad to-day and good to-morrow, because September opens up in the morning.

—Heavy shipments of peaches were received all around to-day. Some are being put up, and some put down.

—Those desiring to go to the Beloit Fair, this week, can go on the new Afton road, but they will have to walk.

—All interested in the characters and customs of the German fatherland, should attend the M. I. C. costume social to-night.

—The finishing touches of Bennett's and Richardson's new blocks are being delayed by the non-arrival of the plate glass for the front windows.

—A warrant has been served on Mrs. Canary for selling liquor on Sunday. As she is too ill to appear in court, the case has been put off until Friday next.

—Justice Brooks was kept busy until eleven o'clock last night hearing a replevin case, and to-day his court room swarms again, with those interested in the civil suit from Milton.

—The doors of All Saints church will be open this evening at 7 o'clock. Nativism will introduce the characters at 8 o'clock, after which dancing and supper will follow. Admission 10 cents.

—The Temperance Band stirred up the streets with music to-day to remind people that St. Patrick's church would try again to have a picnic this afternoon. A dance is also on the programme for this evening.

—The new developments in the Elk-horn murder case seem to point to it as a sort of repetition of the Mack affair. Four persons, including the wife of the murdered man and her step-father are under arrest.

—Dr. Humphrey returned from Winona this afternoon, and will be found at his office, ready for work, from 9 to 6 daily. The Doctor has sold out his business in Winona, with a view of coming here permanently to locate.

—The Bowler City Rifles are being worked up in fancy drill by Sergeant Childers, and when they get the moves down line they will show up in a way which will surprise the public. Probably the first chance outsiders will have to witness their proficiency will be when they formally open their new armory in Bennett's block.

—He thought it was a good time to impart a lesson on morality, and tightening up his white choker he approached the strange little boy as he sat in the doctor's office getting a broken arm put in place, and began his acquaintance by solemnly asking, like a voice from some second hand graveyard—"And so, my lad, you've been breaking the Sabbath have you?" "Oh, no sir, I broke my arm." Exit lesson on morality.

—It don't pay to be sick, but if one can't help it, it is just as well to know where and how to get medicines, and to have prescriptions carefully prepared on short notice. As will be seen by a display of printer's ink in another column, W. M. Eldredge is still on earth, and is still to be found at his old stand, ready to serve his patrons in good shape. He has a good big stock of combs and brushes, and toilet articles, in fact everything usually found in a store of his kind, and many novelties not usually found. Go and see him.

—It is understood that Thomas Riding, whose little girl was injured, the other day, by being tripped up by a defective sidewalk, is to sue the city as well as the owner of the adjacent property, for damages. Whether such a suit will result adversely to the city or not, it is about time that Janesville woke up on the subject of sidewalks. There are many dangerous ones in all parts of the city. It isn't very soothing to a man's temper to have a plank slip him in the face, nor to go tumbling over a broken board, but when there's an additional liability of broken bones besides bruises, and a law suit on the end of that, it is time to take a dose of prevention. By all means fix up the walks.

—It seems passing strange that there are still folk in the world who can be and will be so careless in the use of a gun, as some of those who indulge in shooting in the vicinity of Burr Robbins' farm. There has been of late not only much annoyance, but there have been some very narrow escapes from injury, if not death. Last Sunday as Mr. Robbins was sitting on the porch of Mr. Robbins house some one fired a gun, and the shot struck the house about eight feet from him. A few days before, a lady received two or three shot in the arm, inflicting fortunately only slight injury. These sportsmen hold come right upon the premises and shoot Burr Robbins' own robins. It is trusted that with this public notice for all to quit the business, there will be no further trouble or danger, but if there is there will be a lively firing of fur. Of course no one has a right to fire off a gun anywhere within the city limits, and when it comes to endangering the safety and life of children, as well as adults there is an aggravation of the offense which warrants speedy and heavy penalties. Stop it.

World renowned, as unrivaled, the Astor House, New York.

THE WEATHER.
The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 79 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m. to-day at 75 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 76 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 78 degrees above. Showery.

The indications to-day are for the upper lake region, falling barometer, stationary or higher temperature, east to south winds partly cloudy weather, and occasional rains.

OBITUARY.
CURTIS PARMLEY.

Last night death came and claimed Curtis Parmley, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of the town of Center. For several years past he has been in ill health, but the immediate sickness which ended in death was only of a month's duration, and was the result of a complication of causes, some deeming the chief to be cancer of the stomach and others the lingering effects of a paralytic stroke which he had a long time before.

Mr. Parmley was born in Cornwall, Connecticut, in 1815, and had therefore, reached his sixty-fifth year. While yet a boy his father's family removed to Ohio where he continued to reside until 1846, when he came to Wisconsin, and entered as Government land the farm upon which he lived from that time till his death. He leaves a wife and three children. One of his sons, Ira H. Parmley, resides in Center. Another son, Charles Parmley, is in the employ of John Griffiths, in Janesville. His only daughter is the wife of C. S. Crow, also of Center. Besides these, thus called upon to mourn the loss of a true husband and a kind father, there are three brothers all living in Center, James, Russell, and Ira Parmley. Mrs. Gilman Austin, who died about a year ago, was his only sister.

Mr. Parmley was a most successful farmer, and justly merited the success he won, for in his habits he was industrious and attentive, and in his dealings honest and upright. His life and character were such as to win for him the greatest respect and confidence of his neighbors, and his many kindly qualities drew about him a large circle of friends.

The funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon, the friends gathering at the house at 1 o'clock, and proceeding from there to the church. Rev. Mr. Morrison will officiate.

NO FAIR.
At a meeting of the Directors of the Rock County Agricultural Society this afternoon, it was decided not to hold any Fair this fall.

PERSONAL.
—Mr. and Mrs. Paville, of Lake Mills, have been spending a few days with their son, Rev. Henry Paville.

—A postal received from Father Munich, states that he expects to sail for this country on the 10th of September.

—Harry Anderson is getting settled in his new living rooms over his barber shop, and he has had them fitted up in fine style.

—The sons of Mr. Chester Cook, of Harmony, who is so ill as to forbid all hope of recovery, arrived this afternoon, and hastened to the bedside of their father.

—If reports be true, Walter Myers is liable to return from New Mexico wearing diamonds which will make an ordinary headlight seem like an inkspot. Hope it's so.

PLEASURES OF THE PARLOR.
Miss Maggie Lord entertained in a very happy manner a gathering of her friends at her home last evening. A bountiful supper was served about 9 o'clock, and dancing followed until a late hour, Anderson's band furnishing the needed music. All who were present on the occasion pronounce it a joyous one.

A Little More Cider
To the farmers of Johnson and adjoining townships

I am putting in my mill at Johnson Center, the celebrated Cider Machinery, of the well known firm of Baumer and Boschert, of Syracuse, New York. Clark's Damaged holder, manufactured by the above named firm, does away with the need of curdling and straining, and the cider comes from the press pure, and free from pomace. I expect to be ready to commence the making of cider, August 2nd. I desire that every one shall have the cider from their own apples.

Come One, Come All!
And I will do you good. J. P. THOMPSON.
